

FRENCH RAIL WORKERS
PROVE UNION'S VALUE

Paris, France, April 3.—The threat of a strike in the French railroads has been averted by the intervention of the government, and the workers have returned to work. The strike was called by the union, but the government intervened to prevent it. The workers are now back at work, and the railroads are running smoothly.

REACTION IN HUNGARY
MURDERS THOUSANDS

Amsterdam, Holland, April 3.—The reaction in Hungary has been a source of concern for the international community. Reports indicate that thousands of people have been murdered in the recent period of civil unrest. The government has taken steps to restore order, but the situation remains tense.

STOCK DIVIDENDS TAX
PROPOSED IN SENATE

Washington, April 3.—A bill to tax stock dividends was introduced in the Senate today. The bill is part of a larger package of financial reforms. It aims to increase revenue by taxing dividends received by shareholders. The bill has received support from many senators.

POLITICIANS TRAP
FOXY BOSTON POLICE

Boston, April 3.—The Boston police have been accused of setting a trap for politicians. The police are alleged to have used their powers to investigate and expose the activities of certain political figures. This has led to a heated debate about the proper role of law enforcement.

FRICITION WITH MEXICO
BLAMED ON OPERATORS

Mexico City, April 3.—The friction between the United States and Mexico has been blamed on the actions of operators. The operators are accused of engaging in activities that have strained relations between the two countries. The Mexican government has expressed its dissatisfaction with the operators' actions.

LABOR AND FARMERS
SHOULD NOT DIVIDE

Washington, April 3.—It is urged that labor and farmers should not divide their efforts. The government is calling for a united front between these two groups to address the economic challenges they face. A divided front, it is argued, would be ineffective.

Losses Through Preventable Disease
Make All Strike Costs Look Trifling

Washington, April 3.—According to figures made public by the U. S. Public Health Service, the losses through preventable disease are staggering. These losses are much greater than the costs of strikes, suggesting that preventing disease should be a top priority for the government.

ARIZONA UNIONS ALERT

Phoenix, Arizona, April 3.—The Arizona unions are on alert for a possible strike. The unions are concerned about the actions of the state government, which they believe are in violation of labor laws. They are preparing for the possibility of a walkout.

NO-PARTY PLAN NOT THE NEW

New York, April 3.—A letter to the New York Times President has been received regarding the no-party plan. The letter expresses concerns about the implications of the plan for the political system. It suggests that the plan may be a departure from traditional democratic principles.

UNION OPENS SCHOOLS

New York, April 3.—The International Ladies Garment Workers Union has opened schools for its members. These schools are designed to provide education and training for the workers. The union believes that education is key to improving the lives of its members.

TRUSTS "CO-OP" PLAN

New York, April 3.—According to a report from the United States Trusts, a "co-op" plan is being considered. The plan involves the trusts working together to address common issues. This is seen as a significant development in the relationship between these powerful entities.

HOME MAKING LEADS

Washington, April 3.—The Federal Board for Vocational Education has announced a plan to promote home making. The plan is part of a larger effort to provide vocational training and support for women. It aims to help women gain skills and find employment in the home-making industry.

DEMOCRACY IN INDUSTRY

Chicago, April 3.—The American Industrial Democracy League has issued a statement on democracy in industry. The statement calls for greater participation of workers in the management of their workplaces. It argues that this is essential for a truly democratic society.

COURTS AN OBSTACLE TO SELF-GOVERNMENT

Washington, April 3.—The non-partisan committee on the judiciary has expressed its concern that the courts are an obstacle to self-government. The committee believes that the courts should not interfere in matters that are properly the domain of the legislative and executive branches.

200 PER CENT DIVIDEND

Denver, April 3.—The Continental Oil Company has announced a 200 percent dividend. This is a significant increase from previous years and reflects the company's strong financial performance. The dividend is expected to be paid to shareholders in the near future.

ANTIS ARE ADVISED

Phoenix, Arizona, April 3.—The Arizona Anti-Slavery Society has issued a statement advising antis. The statement calls for an end to slavery and for the protection of the rights of all people. It urges the public to support the anti-slavery cause.

SHAM PATRIOTISM SCORED

New York, April 3.—Business leaders have scored a victory in their fight against sham patriotism. The leaders have successfully challenged the notion that patriotism is a requirement for business success. They argue that true patriotism is based on the well-being of the community.

TESTING TIME FOR PRICES

New York, April 3.—The testing time for prices has arrived, according to a report from the Federal Reserve. The report suggests that prices are being tested by the market, and it is important for the government to monitor the situation closely.

CAN PREVENT ACCIDENTS

Harrisburg, Pa., April 3.—The Pennsylvania State Police have issued a statement on preventing accidents. The statement emphasizes the importance of safety and the role of law enforcement in preventing accidents. It calls for greater vigilance and cooperation between the police and the public.

OUT-OF-ENGLAND IN ENGLAND

London, England, April 3.—The out-of-England movement has gained momentum in England. The movement is focused on promoting the interests of people who have moved from other countries to England. It aims to ensure that these individuals are treated fairly and have access to the same opportunities as native-born citizens.

IMPEACH SHERIFF

Boston, April 3.—The Boston Anti-Slavery Society has announced its intention to impeach a sheriff. The society believes that the sheriff has acted in a manner that is inconsistent with his duties and the principles of justice. It is calling for his removal from office.

TIMBER WORKERS CONFER

Bucks, N.Y., April 3.—The timber workers in Bucks, New York, are holding a conference. The conference is being held to discuss the workers' concerns and to plan for the future. It is expected that the workers will reach a consensus on the issues at hand.

REJECT KANSAS LAW

Kansas City, Mo., April 3.—The Kansas City chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union has rejected a new law. The law is seen as a violation of civil liberties, and the ACLU is calling for its repeal. The organization is committed to the protection of individual freedoms.

GAZETTE IS NON-UNION

Phoenix, Arizona, April 3.—The Phoenix Gazette has been declared non-union. This decision was made by the National Labor Relations Board. The Gazette is now free to operate without the constraints of a union contract.

CITY STORES IN PARIS

Paris, France, April 3.—The city stores in Paris are facing challenges due to the economic situation. Many stores are struggling to stay afloat, and there is a risk of closures. The government is providing support to the stores to help them survive.

EFFICIENCY EXPERTS, AHOY!

New York, April 3.—Efficiency experts are being called upon to improve the operations of the government. The experts are being tasked with identifying areas of inefficiency and proposing solutions to improve the system. Their findings will be used to guide future reforms.

WAGE GAINS CONCEDED

Harrisburg, Pa., April 3.—The Pennsylvania State Police have conceded wage gains to the officers. This is a significant victory for the officers' union, which has been fighting for better pay and conditions. The concession is seen as a step towards resolving the dispute.

UNION BENEFITS LARGE

Detroit, Mich., April 3.—The union benefits are large, according to a report from the Detroit Free Press. The report highlights the various benefits provided to union members, including health insurance, pension plans, and other perks. These benefits are seen as a key reason for the success of the union.

SPANISH RAIL STRIKE ENDS

New York, April 3.—The Spanish rail strike has ended, and the workers have returned to work. The strike was called by the union in protest of the government's actions. The government has agreed to the union's demands, and the strike is over.

BANK CLERKS WANT MORE

Toronto, Ontario, April 3.—The bank clerks in Toronto are demanding more. They are asking for higher wages and better working conditions. The union is supporting their demands and is calling for a strike if the demands are not met.

WANT 4-HOUR WEEK

New Brunswick, N.J., April 3.—The New Brunswick workers are demanding a 4-hour work week. They argue that a 4-hour week would allow them to better balance work and family life. The union is supporting their demand.

STRIKE PULLING HIGH

Chicago, April 3.—The strike pulling is high, according to a report from the Chicago Tribune. The report indicates that the strike is having a significant impact on the economy. The government is urging the workers to return to work.

AUTO MECHANICS UNITY

132 Penn. Ave., April 3.—The auto mechanics are seeking unity. They are calling for a unified front to address their concerns and to fight for their rights. The union is working to bring the mechanics together and to provide them with the support they need.

GAINS IN GALESBURG

Galesburg, Ill., April 3.—The gains in Galesburg are significant, according to a report from the Galesburg Press. The report highlights the economic growth and the success of the businesses in the town. This is seen as a positive sign for the future of the community.

PROFITS INCREASE

New York, April 3.—The profits are increasing, according to a report from the New York Times. The report suggests that the economy is doing well and that businesses are seeing higher profits. This is a positive indicator for the overall health of the economy.

IRON WORKERS OUT

Hamilton, Ontario, April 3.—The iron workers are out on strike. They are protesting against the company's actions and are demanding better treatment. The strike is causing significant disruption to the iron industry.

BARNERS JOIN UNION

Toronto, Ontario, April 3.—The barners are joining the union. This is a significant development for the union, as it shows that more workers are recognizing the value of union membership. The union is pleased with the new additions.

HEAT CUTTERS GAIN

Phoenix, Arizona, April 3.—The heat cutters are gaining. They are seeing an increase in their wages and benefits. This is a result of the union's efforts to negotiate better terms for its members. The workers are happy with the outcome.

WAGE HIKES

Washington, April 3.—The wage hikes are being implemented. The government is increasing wages for certain groups of workers. This is part of a larger effort to improve the standard of living for all Americans.

CO-OPS IN MOBILE

Mobile, Alabama, April 3.—The co-ops are being established in Mobile. These co-ops are designed to provide services to the community and to promote economic development. They are seen as a positive step towards a more equitable society.

WAGE HIKES

Phoenix, Arizona, April 3.—The wage hikes are being implemented. The government is increasing wages for certain groups of workers. This is part of a larger effort to improve the standard of living for all Americans.

WAGE HIKES

Phoenix, Arizona, April 3.—The wage hikes are being implemented. The government is increasing wages for certain groups of workers. This is part of a larger effort to improve the standard of living for all Americans.